RE: Sale of Fox Commerce Property

Scott Hughes of i2i Mobile Marketing has purchased an additional lot in the Fox Commerce Park , St. Clairsville, Ohio. The Belmont County Commissioners approved the sale which was facilitated by the Belmont County Department of Development Community Improvement Corporation (DOD/CIC).

The recent transaction adds to Hughes’s previous purchase of the adjacent property and will accommodate the revised construction plans for his growing business. Located on lots 7& 8, construction of the expanded facility for the new corporate headquarters is expected to begin soon.

The Hughes company has 25 years experience in motorsports and 15 years in mobile marketing and hospitality. The company coordinates site logistics for shows, events, and racing with multiple marketing display and hospitality teams. Among their clients are Nascar, UPS, The National Guard and Best Buy.

Additional details about the company and their expanding operations at FCP will follow at a time designated by the progress of the construction.
